FASSIFERN FARMS SHORTHORN HERD

The property of the estate of the late

TATE B. STERRETT
HOT SPRINGS, VIRGINIA

It is with great regret that I feel that it is necessary to dispose of the magnificent herd of Shorthorns that Mr. Sterrett developed with so much patience, care and ability over a long period of time.

I realize that I have not had the experience necessary to assume the management of such an important institution as a first class herd of Shorthorn cattle and

I find it impossible to secure the help that I shall need if I attempt this undertaking.

It is my sincere wish that those who will buy these Shorthorns will receive as much pleasure and profit through them as did Mr. Sterrett. I am sure that the Fassifern Shorthorns will go down in the history of the breed as one of the leading factors in the improvement of Shorthorns of its time.

Mrs. Tate B. Sterrett Executor.

Fassifern Shorthorns

Few herds of cattle have been developed with as much care and ability and perseverance as Mr. Tate B. Sterrett put into the building and maintenance of the Fassifern Herd. He had and used not only the means with which to build a great herd but also the knowledge of how to use the means to best advantage.

It will be observed that all of the cattle in this herd, except the two herd bulls are of seven popular families, Broadhooks, Butterfly Clipper, Lavender, Queen of Rothes, Rosemary and Wimple. In every case the female that founded her respective family was far superior to the average of her tribe and hence the herd, as a whole is far above the average. Only truly high class bulls have been used to head this herd and the two that are now at its head were calculated by Mr. Sterrett to make further improvement and his judgment always proved to be correct.

Seldom have I been called upon to manage a sale of cattle, the intrinsic value of which is greater than that of the Fassifern herd, The cattle are all of good type, the pedigress are popular and fashionable, the health of the cattle is perfect, it is a prolific herd and best of all the man who built this herd was a thorough gentleman, of unusual talent and intelligence and his records were kept thoroughly and correctly.

Will Johnson, Editor of The Shorthorn World

FASSIFERN
GRAND
GALLANT 1546521

Fassifern Grand Gallant was a doubly bred Rodney bull that made an enviable record as a winning show bull and as a sire of winners. The picture shows him as a yearling. As he grew older he became very wide and thick and always he had a great head. His offspring inherited all of his good characteristics.
